Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

S I R:

Responsive to the Office Action mailed on April 13, 2006, reconsideration of the rejection of the claims is respectfully requested for the reasons which follow.

Claims 1-9, 11 and 13-22 have been rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as being "unpatentable over" a newly cited Klosterman et al patent ("Klosterman") in view of the previously cited Knee et al patent ("Knee"). This rejection is respectfully traversed.

In rejecting the claims, the Examiner has made reference to Figure 1 and column 4, lines 24-62 of Klosterman, and it is agreed that this figure and the description thereof disclose an information system of broadly the same type as that of the present invention. Where the disagreement appears to lie is in connection with the teachings of Klosterman at Figures 6a and 6b and the description of these figures. The Examiner contends that Klosterman discloses an arrangement wherein "at least one TV channel and at least one scheduled Internet channel from the Internet broadcaster can be listed on the user's scheduled program guide; and wherein the at least one scheduled internet channel has at least one event with a scheduled start time and a scheduled end time, and wherein the graphical user interface is further configured to display the scheduled start time and the scheduled end time" referring to "(Klosterman, Fig. 6a & 6b, and col. 9/lines 19-33 as a virtual internet channel offered to the viewer to the Internet website at start and end times at the same time with other television channels as SHOW, HBO, ESPN and etc., i.e., and as clearly illustrated in Fig. 6a/item 620, NBC internet channel is from 9PM to 10PM)."

It is respectfully submitted that Figure 6(a) does not actually show what the Examiner contends that it shows. As stated in the lines to which the Examiner refers,
